

Here's the first piece of information.

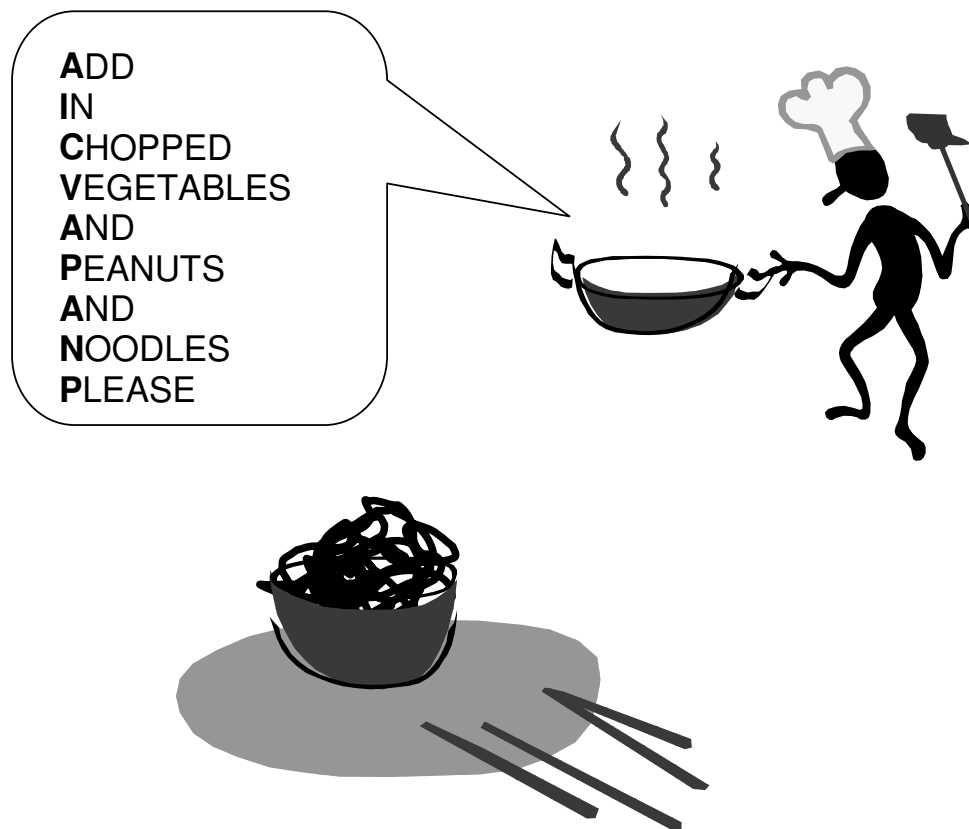

There are nine basic parts of speech (word classes) in the English language.

ADJECTIVES, ADVERBS, ARTICLES, CONJUNCTIONS,
INTERJECTIONS, NOUNS, PREPOSITIONS, PRONOUNS, VERBS.

There are lots of variations though. To help you remember them, think of them as the ingredients of a stir fry.

Take the first letter of each of the terms (tools) above and we have A, A, A, C, I, N, P, P, V. Jumble them up and you can come up with the following mnemonic (memory aid).

How to make a parts of speech stir fry.

In this section of the course you will need to have your own copy of a magazine. We will be cutting things out of it regularly so take care of it.

Now for some creative fun.

Most of the people in Australia can owe their family heritage back to some other country. It may take tracking back over many generations to find out where this country is but most of us can do it.

We are going to make a multi-cultural poster based on three verbs just as we did with the pages of different tenses.

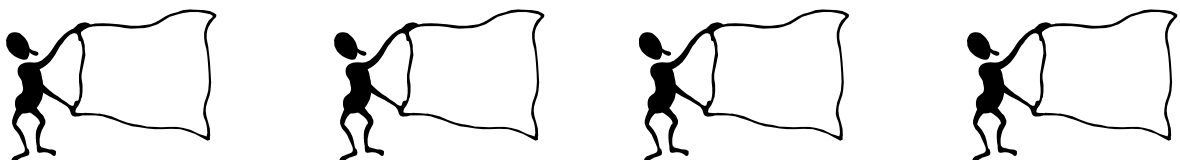

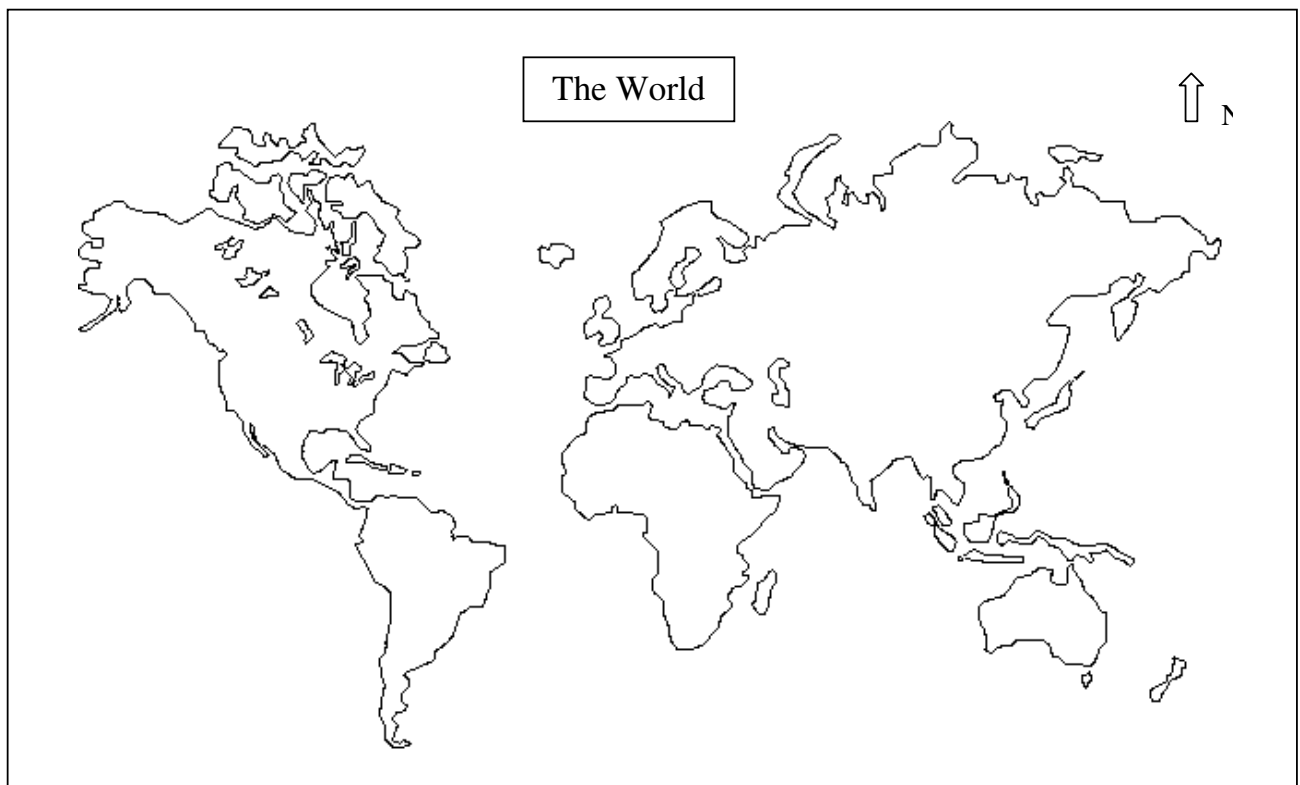

The three verbs will be: “to be”, “to have” and “to speak”.

Research in person, on the internet or in books, as many languages as you can. Write down the words for these three verbs in all of those languages.

Photocopy a map of the world onto A3 paper.

When you find the 3 verbs for each language you must record the verbs on the map.

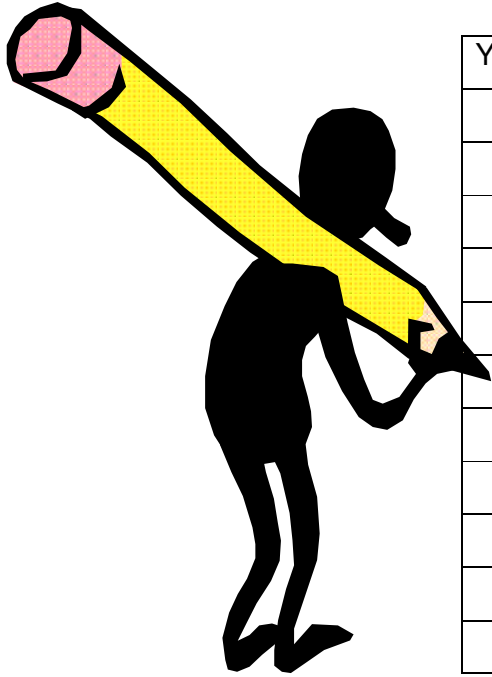

You will need to name the country and put a flag on it. The flag should be the correct flag for that country. (Print off as many blank flags as you need.)
